

The crisis of Tirana today in Luxembourg. The EU Ministers of Foreign Affairs will gather

Monday, 14 June 2010

The Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the European Union will discuss today in Luxembourg about the political crisis in Albania. In the agenda published in the official webpage is said that the heads of diplomacy will discuss the latest developments in the west Balkans, including here the political situation of Albania.

One of the main themes of the meeting is the cooperation of the region countries and the international court of the crimes about the former Yugoslavia, and according to it the ministers will hear the assessments of the chief prosecutor Serzh Bramertz. Based in the developments of the west Balkans the ministers will also discuss about the ratification of the Association and Stability Agreement for Serbia.

Alsat